FLINT HEARTS OF KAISERDOM AT BOTTOM OF ROYAL DEATH

PRINCESS ENDS LIFE IN CASTLE

LOVE TRAGEDY IN GERMANY

Rock in the Princess' Path of Happiness Said to Have Been Grand Duke Ernest of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, the Head of the House—Stormy Careers of the Girl's Father and Brother.

Heidelberg, Germany, Sept. 19.—Princess Sophia, the only daughter of Prince Wilhelm of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, killed herself in her room in her father's castle here with a revolver. The act is supposed to have been caused by melancholia brought on because of the apparent insurmountable obstacles to her marriage to the man of her choice.

The princess, who was 25 years old, was in love with the young Baron Hans von Bleichroder, son of the head of the famous banking house of Berlin, who was ennobled for valuable financial services to the empire. The young baron returned her affection.

The romance was shattered, however, by the opposition on the part of the family of the princess. There have been rumors of violent scenes in the family of the young woman. The rock in the path of the happiness of the princess is said to have been the Grand Duke Ernest of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, the head of the house, who is said to have declared his unalterable opposition to the marriage, not so much that the baron was beneath the princess in rank, as because the young man's father is a Hebrew, who had refused to renounce his creed.

A brother of the princess, the Count Osteinheim, had to leave here and go to London because of his marriage to an actress and various scrapes in which he was involved. He gave up his title of Prince Hermann of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach and his presumptive to the grand ducal throne. He was attached to a crack Berlin regiment, but was a notorious spendthrift and soon became involved in the meshes of the law.

The career of the father of the princess, Prince Wilhelm, was almost as stormy as that of his son. On account of troubles at home he spent some years in the United States under an assumed name. In the United States he earned his living under the name of William Bohde. He worked as riding master, clerk, book agent and waiter, but he was overtaken by illness in New York and his relatives brought him home and he married the Princess Gerta Yuenburg Budington.

HAPPY MEETING IN NEW YORK HOTEL

AFTER FORTY YEARS

Brothers Who Had Imagined Each Other Dead Meet in New York.

New York, Sept. 19.—When a page in the Astor called for "Mr. Waldman" two men answered. When they met they discovered they were brothers. They hadn't met for 40 years. Each had imagined the other had drowned in a shipwreck off Australia. Samuel Waldman lives in Berlin and Franz Waldman hails from Sydney, Australia. Both are prosperous.

BODY OF BELOVED MAYOR WILL LIE IN STATE SUNDAY

REMAINS OF GAYNOR AT FAMILY HOME

Funeral Ceremony For Relatives
Is Held Today.

New York, Sept. 19.—The body of Mayor William Gaynor was transferred today from the steamer Lusitania, which arrived in this port last night, to the steamer Correction at quarantine. The Correction had on board five traffic policemen, representing the three traffic squads, A, B and C, and firemen who acted as pallbearers. The boat then carried the body to a Brooklyn pier, where the undertaker's hearse was waiting to carry it to the late mayor's home.

This afternoon a funeral ceremony for the family and the immediate friends was held at the house. Rev. Dr. Frank W. Page, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal church in Brooklyn, conducted the services.

Late Saturday afternoon the body will be taken to the city hall in Manhattan and will be placed on a platform under the dome. The doors of the city hall will be thrown open to the public at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, and the body will lie in state and be open to public view until sunset. Burial will be made Monday.

HALF THE NAMES ARE QUESTIONED

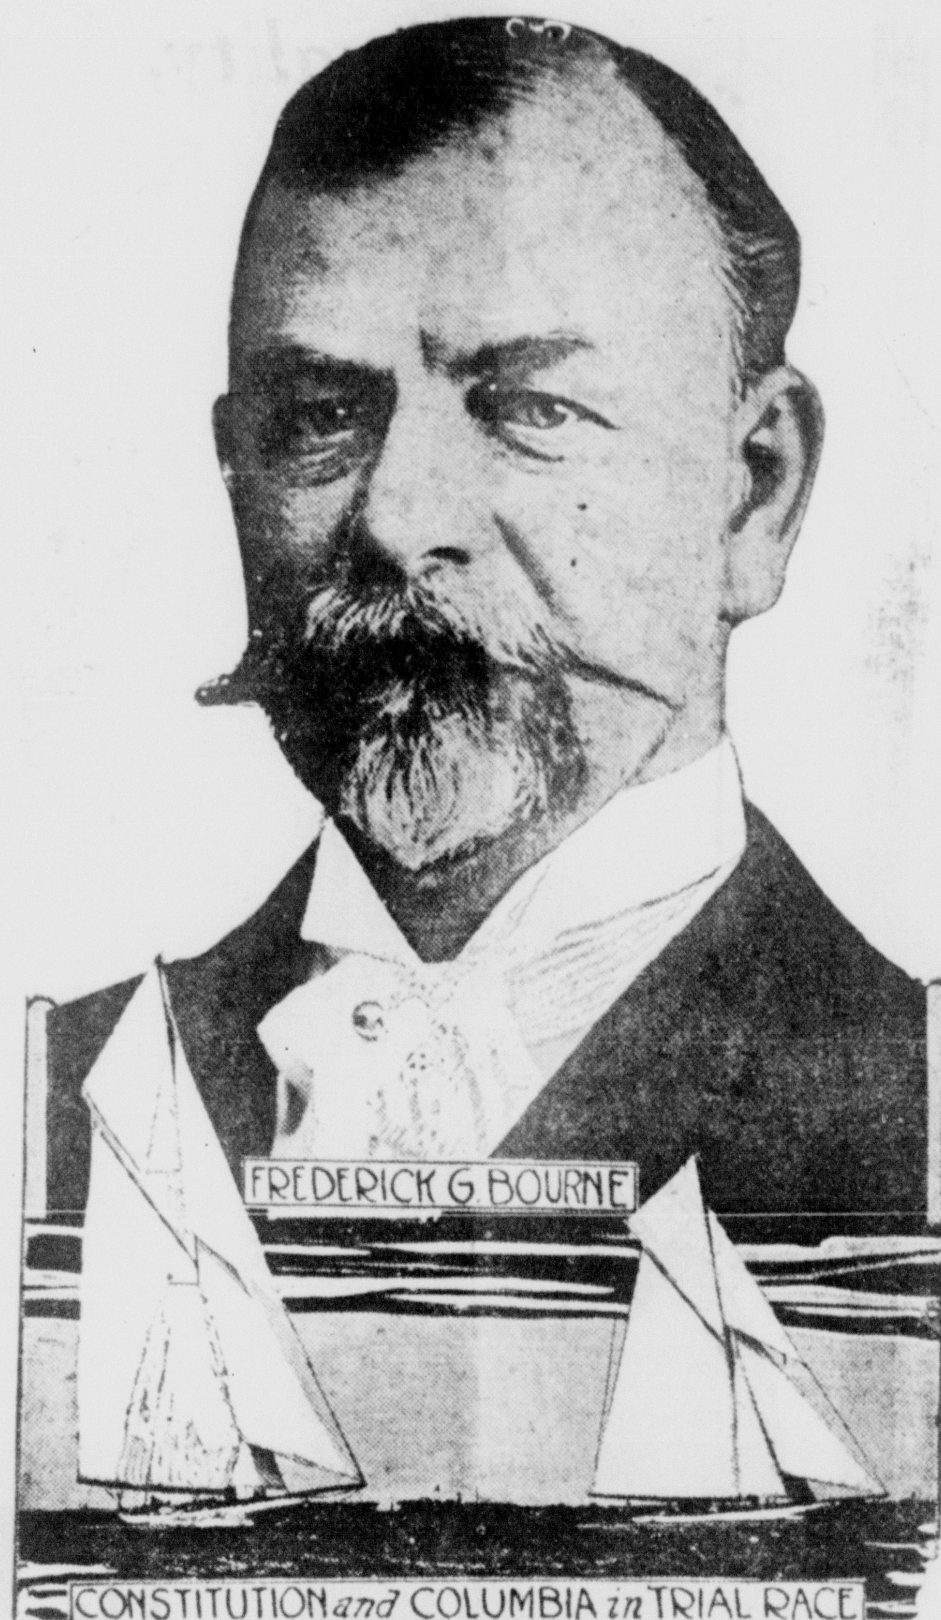

CHALLENGED BY HOGAN

Thirty Thousand Signatures on Cleveland Petitions Said to Be Bogus.

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—Approximately 30,000 signatures on petitions filed in Cleveland for referendum on the Green, Warnes and Kilpatrick laws were challenged by Attorney General Hogan. The aggregate number of names filed from Cuyahoga county on the three tax laws was about 60,000. The challenge was based on reports of state employees and detectives who investigated suspected names taken from the petitions of 25 circulators. These reports were presented by Special Counsel Robert M. Morgan, who expressed the opinion that 80 per cent of the signatures on the challenged petitions were fictitious.

Frederick G. Bourne, Prominent In America's Cup Race in 1901, Again Helps Build Defender for Next Year

FREDERICK G. BOURNE

CONSTITUTION and COLUMBIA IN TRIAL RACE

New York, Sept. 19.—Frederick G. Bourne, former commodore of the New York Yacht club, is a prominent member of the syndicate of millionaires who have ordered the Herreshoffs to build a sloop for the purpose of competing in trial races as a cup defender. Mr. Bourne, who is president of the Sewing Machine company, belonged to the syndicate which built the Constitution for the successful races of 1901. Others who are associated with him are reported to be J. P. Morgan and Cornelius Vanderbilt.

BANDIT WOULD SHIELD DYING MOTHER FROM AWFUL TRUTH

SHOT NORTHERN OHIO SHERIFF

Armed Men in an Automobile Overtake a Touring Car, Rob the Occupants and Steal the Machine—One Gives Battle to Officer When Found at Farmhouse—Others Overtaken and Jailed—Sensational Affair.

Bryan, O., Sept. 19.—A fashionably dressed young man, 22, is in the county jail, held on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Sheriff S. S. Wineland and another charge of robbery. He refuses to reveal his identity, so that his aged mother, dying in a small town in New York state, may not learn of his trouble. When arraigned today he answered to the name of Duff.

In resisting arrest at a farmhouse, eight miles north of Bryan, Duff engaged in a pistol duel with Sheriff Wineland, the sheriff receiving flesh wounds in the head and arm, while his clothing was cut with bullets. The wounding of Sheriff Wineland and the arrest of Duff followed a bold highway robbery on a country road, four miles east of Bryan. Admitting, officers says, that they were the other members of the bandit trio, Arthur Gero, 20, of New York, and William Justice, 20, of Philadelphia, were arrested at Montpelier, O., by Marshal Ed Kelley. Both men were armed and had in their possession $45, two handbags, watches, rings and jewelry valued at about $400.

According to the story of the prisoners, they walked across the country after the holdup, and boarded a Wabash train at Elmira, near Wauseon. They had purchased tickets for Port Wayne.

Herman G. Luyties, president of the Sanitol Chemical company of St. Louis; W. E. Cregier of New York, general manager of the company; J. M. Bye of St. Louis, a salesman for the company, and Mrs. E. and Miss Alice Smith of Chicago were the victims of the holdup. Jewelry valued at $400 and also $50 and the seven-passenger automobile in which the party was touring from New York to Chicago comprised the loot of the robbers.

Luyties was driving his auto and had been followed for some distance by the three young men, who were traveling in a touring car. Claiming their machine was disabled, the bandits asked Luyties to stop. The three then pulled out revolvers and forced Luyties and others to give up their valuables. They then drove away with both machines. Sheriff Wineland was notified and started in pursuit. The two automobiles were found abandoned eight miles north of Bryan. At a farmhouse near by Sheriff Wineland found Duff, who opened fire on the officer, several shots being exchanged before he was captured.

BRAVE WOMEN ARE FORCED TO MURDER OR FORFEIT HONOR

BANDITS OVERRUN MEXICO'S INTERIOR

No Woman Safe, Says Refugee,
Who Shot to Kill.

New York, Sept. 19.—"I had to become a murderer to protect my life in Mexico," declared Mrs. Lillian Gonzales, the American wife of a Mexican planter, who landed here with seven other refugees on the steamer Santiago.

Mrs. Gonzales was loth to go into details. All she would say was, "I had to shoot many times and shoot to kill. It was the only way to escape falling into the hands of the bandits, with which the interior of the country is infested."

Mrs. Gonzales, who is a native of Atlantic City, embarked on the ship at Tampico to seek shelter with relatives here. Her husband remained to look after his property. "No American woman is safe in the interior of Mexico," said Mrs. Gonzales. "In the gulf towns things are comparatively quiet, but as soon as one penetrates into the interior there is constant danger of attack by bandits. Outlaws break into homes in broad daylight and commit unspeakable outrages before the eyes of the helpless planters."

GOLDEN STANDARD REAFFIRMED WITH A DECISIVE VOTE

CURRENCY BILL PASSED

Gold Standard Adopted as Basis of American Money.

Washington, Sept. 19.—By a vote of 286 to 84, the house passed the currency bill, after having by a still more emphatic vote amended the measure so that the act of 1900, whereby the gold standard was adopted as the basis of American money, was reaffirmed. A separate vote was demanded by Mr. Wingo of Arkansas on the amendment adopted Wednesday night. There was a division showing an overwhelming majority for the amendment, but Wingo demanded the ayes and noes. When the rollcall was completed it was found that the "sound money" amendment had won by a vote of 298 to 69.

When the currency bill was put upon its passage, many Republicans voted with the majority party. Three Democrats voted against it—Calloway of Texas, Witherspoon of Mississippi and Elder of Louisiana.

CABLE ILLUMINES THEIR PAST

Insanity To Be the Defense of the Rectory Girl's Slayer, Who Will Be Brought to Trial Next Month—Police Discover Fourth Flat Which Schmidt Had Used in His Various Operations.

New York, Sept. 19.—A cable dispatch from Aschaffenburg, Germany, says that investigation there indicates that Ernest A. Muret, under arrest here as a counterfeiter and an accomplice of Hans Schmidt, slayer of Anna Aumuller, is Adolph Mueller of Mainz, Germany, and a cousin of Hans Schmidt. Hans Schmidt, the priest, and Muret, the doctor, say the Aschaffenburg authorities, occupied themselves a great deal in Germany several years ago with hypnotism and spiritualistic seances. They had a quarrel and were bitter enemies for a time, but were reconciled before Father Schmidt left for America.

This word from Germany offsets Schmidt's statement that he had known Muret only 10 months. The killer of Anna Aumuller says he quarreled with Muret last month. Muret, in a note from his cell in the Tombs, said: "Schmidt and I quarreled in August, when we practically parted. Schmidt began then already to show signs that St. Elizabeth was with him and he wanted to become a second Savior. I called him crazy and he got sore at me."

Schmidt will be brought to trial for the girl's murder next month before Judge Warren W. Foster of general sessions.

The defense will be insanity, because that is the "only possible defense," according to his lawyer, Alphonse Koelbe. "How could there be any other defense?" said Koelbe. "The man confesses right and left to everything he's accused of. I'm satisfied he has a paranoiac form of dementia praecox. I want to get a trustworthy alienist of the highest standing to examine him tomorrow."

The police discovered a fourth flat which Schmidt used in his crime operations. It was in West Eighty-fourth street, and Mrs. Hander, who rented it to Schmidt, was worrying because she had forgot to tell Inspector Faurot that when Schmidt came to this flat he sometimes brought with him a 2-year-old boy. Whose boy it was that the priest, masquerading as a traveling salesman, took with him to this place, the woman had no idea.

Coroners' Verdict.

Jersey City, Sept. 19.—A coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Anna Aumuller met her death at the hands of Hans Schmidt and recommended that action be taken by the New York authorities. Parts of the girl's body recovered will be turned over to them.

WITNESS MISSING

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Louis A. Sarecky, secretary to Governor Sulzer before the latter was elected governor, and, after Mrs. Sulzer, probably the chief witness in the Sulzer impeachment trial, has disappeared. Detectives sent to Buffalo to locate him in that city wired here that he had left the state and was believed to be in Cleveland, O. Sarecky had charge of the Sulzer campaign funds.

HIGHLAND COMMISSIONERS FACE A KNOTTY PROBLEM

Peculiar Dilemma Confronts New Commissioners in Highland, Where Expenses are $2,250 per Month and Officials Have $1,000 to Run the County for Six Months, and Cannot Borrow a Single Cent.

The Highland County Commissioners are facing a problem which will make their term in office anything but pleasant, as the treasury is almost empty and they must meet expenses reaching nearly $15,000 with only $1,000 available. Meanwhile all road and bridge work of all kinds must be abandoned until some solution is found to the knotty problem. The Hillsboro News-Herald tells the story as follows:

When the county commissioners on Monday came to make the semi-annual appropriation of the money in the different funds for all purposes for the next six months, it was found that there was less than $1,000 in the county fund; $3838.86 in the infirmary fund; $1857.75 in the Children's Home fund; $663.85 in the judicial fund and that the bridge and road funds were exhausted.

The commissioners then appropriated the entire amount of money in each fund for miscellaneous purposes.

Now here is the hard problem. Out of the county fund is paid the general expenses of conducting the county business. Within the last month about $12,000 has been paid out of this fund to run the affairs of the county. Under the law the only purpose for which the commissioners can borrow money is to pay the salaries of the officials and their deputies. If it cost $12,000 to conduct the business for less than one month how can you conduct it for six months on $1000? This, however, is hardly a fair statement of the problem as a considerable number of the bills paid in the last month had been accumulating for some time. But this is a fair statement. The amount of taxes levied for the county fund is over $27,000 for the year or an estimated cost of about $2250 per month. If it costs $2250 a month to conduct the ordinary business of the county, how can you run it for six months on $1000.

Understand that the commissioners can not borrow money; can not contract for any work of any description unless the money has been appropriated for that purpose. And moreover there are things which the law compels them to do in the next six months which will cost more than $1,000. Thus this situation is faced. The law commands the commissioners on one hand to do certain things and to pay for them. On the other hand the law says that they shall not pay out any money unless it is appropriated for that purpose. And they have not any money to appropriate. Lovely situation.

Not only is the county fund in this condition but there is not a dollar to spend on bridges and roads. No matter what condition a bridge may get in, no matter how dangerous it may be for travel, there is no money to fix it. And the same holds good of the roads. And still the law commands the commissioners to at once repair dangerous bridges or dangerous places in the roads.

Auditor Teter told the commissioners Monday that in the condition the funds were now in that for the next six months there was nothing for them to do but draw their salaries. They can not allow bills for there is nothing to pay them with. They can not contract for work, because there is no money appropriated for any purpose. Their meetings can be only for social purposes.

DEATH ANGEL CALLS YOUNG WOMAN

Relatives and friends were shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Miss Mabel Wyatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wyatt, of South North street, at 12:30 Thursday night.

For some time, Miss Wyatt has been a great sufferer from goiter and underwent an operation at the Fayette hospital Thursday, as the last hope of regaining her health.

A bright young woman, of only 35 years, lovely in character and a rarely devoted daughter, her death causes desolation in the home as well as genuine sorrow among her friends, and the sympathy of the community goes out to the family.

The remains were taken to the home early Friday morning.

Funeral service will be held Monday at 2 p. m., at the residence. Burial in Washington cemetery.

SMALL FORTUNE PAID FOR BUNCH OF HOGS

Henry Heistand, a farmer, residing on the Devalon road just north of the Children's Home, on Thursday, delivered to W. B. Snider, stock dealer, 172 head of spring pigs, which averaged 200 pounds. The price realized was $9 per hundred, making a total of over $3000. Mr. Heistand raised the entire bunch of hogs and performed all the labor himself, for which he has been well paid. Mr. Snider shipped the hogs to Needy & Co., Pittsburg.

CONDITIONS ON
D. T. & I. BETTER

Within the past few days there has been a turn for the better in the condition of the D. T. & I. railroad, which for weeks has been badly crippled in the handling of trains, owing to many engines being condemned by the state boiler inspectors.

While the turn for better shipping has taken place it is small, and shippers and receivers of goods are still making vigorous protest against the lengthy delays.

The employees are receiving back salary which has been due for weeks. Last month the expenses of the road exceeded the receipts by some $45,000, it is claimed.

FACE UGLY CHARGE

Acting upon the request of a probation officer of the Springfield juvenile court, Judge G. C. Davis of the Police court has taken jurisdiction of the cases of Benjamin Rogers and Jacob Noel, of this city, who are held on a charge of forcing 12-year-old Roy Pummell to drink whiskey until he became unconscious from the effects of the fiery liquor.

When given their preliminary hearing the two men pleaded not guilty and their trials were set for Tuesday morning of next week.

The offense with which they are charged occurred several days ago, and has created more than passing interest.

Mrs. Fred M. Mark delightfully entertained 30 little girls and boys Thursday afternoon in honor of the seventh birthday of her bright little daughter, Nell.

The children had a merry time with games and a candy bean hunt and Mrs. Mark served a delicious luncheon at the close of the afternoon's play. Many beautiful birthday gifts were left as souvenirs of the day.

Misses Hazel Gillespie and Margaret Mark assisted.

A pleasurable affair of Thursday afternoon was a kensington given by Mrs. L. L. Bowman, in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Kleiningsmith, of Greensburg, Pa.

It was quite small, sixteen young matrons enjoying the opportunity of meeting the honor guest with the cordial hospitalities of the hostess.

Shell pink and white carnations were used in decoration and given as guest favors. A dainty refectory was served. Mrs. Maude Howland was a guest from Bloomingburg.

Mrs. Fred Short gave an exceedingly pretty birthday party for her four-year-old daughter, Ramona, Thursday afternoon.

Thirty-two tiny tots spent a very happy afternoon, with diversions carefully planned for their pleasure and Mrs. J. H. Chapman contributing piano numbers.

The children's delight reached its climax when they were served with a tempting luncheon around a beautifully decorated table. A big white birthday cake, on which burned four pink and white candles, stood

POST WHEELER COMING HOME FROM ROME TO FACE ACCUSATIONS

POST WHEELER

Washington, Sept. 19.—Post Wheeler has been summoned from his post in Rome as secretary of the American embassy to answer charges. The Italian government permits diplomats and diplomatic attaches to receive goods from other countries without paying any duty, and reports of the case are to the effect that Wheeler is accused of taking advantage of this courtesy to make a profit for himself by turning it to commercial advantage.

Wheeler has been in the diplomatic service since July 21, 1908. On Dec. 29, 1906, in Tokyo, Wheeler, who was educated in Princeton university under Woodrow Wilson, married Hallie Erminie Rives, the novelist and cousin of Amelle, Princess Troubetskoy.

SEEK SMUGGLERS OF 'OPIUM RING'

Officials Have Clew In Chinese Book Just Found.

Washington.—On the basis of unofficial reports from Chicago concerning the discovery there of a "Chinese black book" containing a list of agencies for the sale of opium in various cities, marginal notes in Chinese characters and records of Chinese alleged to have been smuggled into the United States, federal officials started on the trail of what they suspect to be an organization of opium sellers, Chinese smugglers and white slavers.

Immigration Commissioner Caminetti directed the Chicago immigration officials to get in touch with the Chicago police, who have possession of the Chinese black book, and obtain all the information regarding the case, with a view to ascertaining whether the Chinese exclusion laws have been violated by smuggling orientals over an "underground road" from Canada.

The chief immigration inspector at Chicago is Dr. Percy L. Prentiss, who was in New York on detail as a member of the special board investigating food conditions at Ellis Island.

The special agents of the customs service will also look into the matter, as they are interested in violations of the opium law, while the immigration authorities are more particularly concerned with the allegations of smuggling of Chinese into the country. Any evidence of violations of the Mann white slave law will be turned over to the department of justice.

Fall Fashion Festival

The first rich tinting of autumn leaves and the tang of autumn in the air ushers in the Fall Fashion Festival, solving the problem of what to wear for many a worried woman.

For one week the foremost styles, the most beautiful materials and the loveliest creations are exhibited as at no other time during the year. Colors are so beautifully combined that it is a delight to look at them. They riot in lustrous textures, and shimmering folds, draperies caught with wonderful ornaments, that show expert skill in the designing.

For one week decorators are given full sway and the most delicate fabrics, the most expensive trimmings, the latest frocks from Paris, the advance models in suits, the smartest metropolitan chapeaux are taken from their cases and held up to the admiring shoppers.

It is a week of revelation. In it the woman of small income has a chance to see the most luxurious garments of Fashion's decrees. Her purse too depleted for their purchase, the Fall Fashion Festival is her great opportunity. Not alone does its beauty give hours of delight, she gains many a suggestion from a Paris model that will prove helpful in the evolving of an effective fall costume.

To the woman of the fat pocketbook, the charm of the Fall Festival is beyond the telling. There is so much of georgousness and beauty from which to choose and all so artistically arranged for her selection that fall shopping is a positive joy.

Yes, as far as the women are concerned, the Fall Fashion Festival is an unqualified success and even the men pause to take a peep at the stunning window displays.

This year the Fall Fashion Festival has been featured as never before. Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Springfield and many smaller cities are out doing all former efforts in making one certain week a gala occasion in the world of fashion.

Washington C. H. is not only "keeping up with Lizzie," she is putting many of her sister cities in the shade. Washingtonians can afford to preen themselves a little on the Fall Fashion Festival of our own city.

It is by no means necessary to visit other cities to see the most exclusive styles, the cream of the fall merchandise—you will find them right at home in our own beautiful stores—stores that in their spaciousness and perfection of arrangement offer ideal setting for a Fall Festival that is a forecase of the season's fashions.

You only have to go a few blocks to see and judge whether all southern Ohio offers a more admirably culled fall showing.

This is the testimony of those who know. It comes right from an experience meeting of shoppers who attended the Fall Fashion Festival of larger cities and came back home to buy.

There Has Been a General Decay of Manners All Over the World

By Lord ROSEBERY, Former Prime Minister of Great Britain

THE men of the seventeenth century were, I suspect, the gentlest bred ever produced, partly because they POSSESSED GOOD MANNERS themselves and partly because they realized the enormous importance of courtesy and good manners in the common transactions of life.

Now, English speaking people are never famous for good manners.

I THINK THERE HAS BEEN A DECAY OF MANNERS ALL OVER THE WORLD. GOOD APPEARANCE AND GOOD MANNERS HAVE AN ENORMOUS COMMERCIAL VALUE IN LIFE. I SOMETIMES WONDER WHY THEY ARE NOT HARPED ON MORE.

Good appearance, you may say, is not at our command. I don't agree. Good looks are not at our command. They are a gift of the gods, but a good, straightforward, manly appearance, an appearance without self-consciousness—which is the most disagreeable feature perhaps of all in appearance—is WITHIN THE COMMAND OF EVERY BOY.

Manners are even more important than appearance. Say three boys are applying for the same situation. One boy may not have the abilities of either of the other two, but if he has good manners; if, instead of grunting an answer like the first one or giving only an inarticulate sound like the second, he gives a clear, respectful answer to the questions asked him, it is TEN TO ONE AGAINST THE OTHER TWO.

Poetry For Today

DON'T WORRY.

This motto life's journey will Ease, as a crutch:
"Don't ever let anything
Bother you much."

A club at your service, it
Sure beats the Dutch;
"Don't ever let anything
Bother you much."

Of pain and hard luck it will Loosen the clutch:
"Don't ever let anything
Bother you much."

The "God's in His heaven" of Browning you touch—
"Don't ever let anything Bother you much."

"Your faith that 'all's right with the World' should be such
As to never let anything Bother you much!"
—Brooklyn Eagle.

BOY'S SKIN ERUPTION.

Cured by Our Reliable Skin Remedy.
Saxo Salve. Read the Father's Story.

Mr. Arthur Whitman, of Bangor, Pa., says: "For over a year my son, fifteen years old, was troubled with a skin eruption. He tried a number of remedies, none of which gave any benefit. Saxo Salve was recommended, and after using it steadily for several weeks, the sores were all healed and he is now completely recovered from the trouble."

I consider Saxo Salve a wonderful remedy, and shall be glad to have you publish this letter for the benefit of others who suffer from any skin trouble."

It is astonishing even to us, to see how Saxo Salve stops the terrible itching, soothes and heals the skin, in all sorts of eruptive disorders such as eczema, hives, itchy, ring worm and tetter.

Saxo Salve is guaranteed to satisfy you in any case of skin affection, or you get your money back. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. True cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is not a local, but a general condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give you Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

FIRST NUMBER OF THE WASHINGTON LECTURE COURSE

BOSTON OPERA STAR
TO BE HEARD HERE

Mdme. Evelyn Scotney Will Sing
in Concert This Season.

Perhaps the most important musical announcement of the year is that we are to hear Mdme. Evelyn Scotney of the Boston Opera Company and her three assisting artists.

Mdme. Scotney will come to us fresh from her recent triumphs at Covent Garden, London, England, where she was featured in leading roles with such world-famous singers as Melba and Caruso. This young prima donna sprang into fame in a single night's performance at the Boston Opera House and scored triumphantly in every appearance afterward, until her fame reached London, when the managers of Covent Garden engaged her by cable for the summer season.

MDME. EVELYN SCOTNEY.

the greatest honor that can be accorded any singer. This placed her at once in the foremost rank of coloratura sopranos, and from the modest, unassuming, girlish, Evelyn Scotney, she became simply "Scotney, the operatic star." Her engagement at Covent Garden has been a tremendous success and she returns with added honors and encomiums.

Mdme. Scotney will be assisted by artists almost as great as herself, every one noted: Howard White basso cantante, of the Boston Opera Company; Karl Barleben, violin virtuoso, with the Boston Symphony Orchestra for sixteen years, an artist of international fame, and Frank Waller, pianist, assistant conductor of the Boston Opera Company. It is to be doubted if a company of finer artists has ever appeared in our city and music lovers will be enthusiastic over the program they will present.

The Scotney Company will appear at Grace church, Thursday night, October 2nd as the first number of the Washington Lecture course.

"Clincher" Paint

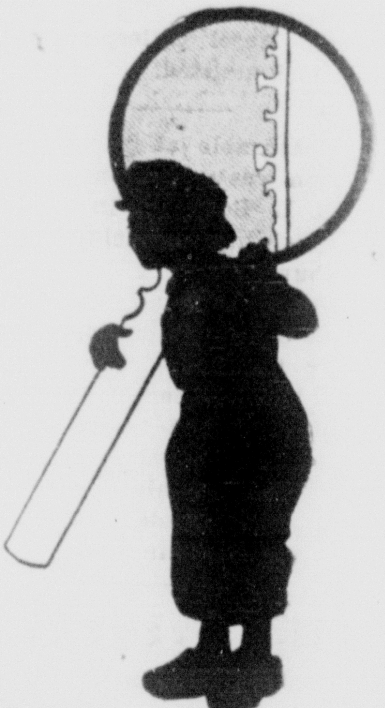

We know a paint which holds to the wood like a driven nail. Seasoned lumber is porous. The pores are the empty sap-cells. White lead paint, which dries on the wood in the form of a solid, elastic film, fastens into these pores, and the whole coat of paint is actually riveted like armor-plate to the surface it decorates and protects.

And DUTCH BOY LINSEED OIL

We sell it as well as other painting requisites. Come in and have a talk with us about painting.

Look Young! Feel Full o' Ginger! SAMUEL'S "3-P"
Banish Indigestion and Build Up the Nerves
Thousands Are Doing It

Those who constantly suffer from indigestion, sour, out of order stomachs, have little energy and less vitality. They look sixty at thirty—and they FEEL sixty. The nerves get little nourishment from the food they eat, because it does not digest, but just rots in the stomach, causing bloating from poisoning gases, salivary gland complications, pimples, headaches, and other well-known distressing symptoms. They feel just "worn-out" half or more of the time.

Get a package of Samuel's "Three-P" capsules. Take them regularly for a few capsules, and notice the difference in the way you feel and look; that feeling of buoyancy which makes life worth living. That's why millions of these little capsules are sold.

It's not a secret patent medicine, but a prescription after the formula of a celebrated French physician, with all its ingredients plainly printed on the package. The capsules are used and indigestion, leading physicians all over the world as the best to quickly put the stomach "back on the job," also to infuse new strength, new energy, new vitality into a run-down system.

Good druggists everywhere sell Samuel's "Three-P" capsules. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. The order direct from The Samuel Chemical Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. Sold by

CAST THE VOTE THAT SETTLED THE QUESTION

MADE HANNA SENATOR

Former Representative Griffith Dies In New Mexico.
Prospect, O., Sept. 19.—John Ellsworth Griffith, former member of the general assembly, who cast the vote which elected Mark Hanna to the United States senate in January, 1898, died in Socorro, N. M., according to a message received by friends here. He was born 45 years ago in Prospect.

Mr. Griffith was a delegate to the house from Union county. During the controversy which finally led to the selection for senator of Mr. Hanna over Robert E. McKisson of Cleveland, he was kidnapped, but was returned in time to cast the seventy-third and deciding ballot for Mr. Hanna. For his services in the contest Mr. Griffith was appointed clerk of the United States district court at Socorro and served until a few days after Hanna's death, when J. B. Foraker brought influence against him. He practiced law in that city until his death.

TRIO CHOSEN TO PREPARE

RULES FRAMED FOR IMPEACHMENT COURT

Sulzer May Not Get In His Point As to Trial's Validity.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Judge William Bartlett of the court of appeals and Senators Wagner and Brown framed rules of procedure for the court of impeachment. The most important provides for the submission of three questions to the court after all the evidence is in and counsel have summed up. The first is whether or not Governor Sulzer is guilty of the offenses charged in the articles of impeachment, and up on this the members of the court will be called upon to vote "guilty" or "not guilty."

If the decision is "guilty," the second question to be submitted is whether or not Governor Sulzer shall be removed from office. If the second question is decided in the affirmative a third question will be put to a vote of the members of the court as to whether or not Governor Sulzer shall be debarred from holding any office of honor, trust or profit under this state in future.

The high court of impeachment has 57 members, and 37 will be necessary for conviction.

Few persons here believe that Judge Herrick will get in his point as to the unconstitutionality of the trial.

GARRISON IN CONTEMPT

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 19.—James Garrison, a Sulzer supporter, was adjudged in contempt of the assembly for persistently refusing to answer questions put to him by Assemblyman Levy, as counsel for the committee which sought to get the facts upon which Garrison made a public statement that the votes of four of the assemblymen had been bought in order to get the necessary 76 votes in the assembly to adopt the Sulzer articles of impeachment. The assembly adopted Levy's resolution providing for Garrison's incarceration in the Albany county penitentiary "until he purges himself of contempt." Garrison was immediately arrested.

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 19.—What is believed to have been the maximum of heat in California this year was recorded at Silver Lake. The mercury sizzled at the 127 mark, according to information reaching here.

Sons of Veterans Elect.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 19.—John E. Sautter of Pittsburg was elected commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans in annual session here. Other officers chosen are: Harry L. Street, Chattanooga, senior vice commander; Robert W. Biese, Chattanooga, junior vice commander; Henry F. Weller, Boston; William B. Maynard, Rochester; and Charles C. Behnte, St. Louis, members of the council-in-chief.

Republicans Name Committees.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Chairman Frank H. Woods of the Republican congressional committee announced the following committees: Executive, Senator Frank B. Brandegee, Representatives Kahn, Patton, Esch, Gardner (Mass.), Madden, Stearnson, French, Austin, Fess. Advisory: Representatives Campton, Mondell, Guernsey, Stempf, Young (N. D.). Two additional members of the executive committee will be appointed later.

FRENCHMEN KILLED IN TROLLEY WRECK

DISASTER IN FRANCE

Seventeen Killed and Thirty Hurt In Electric Railway Wreck.
Paris, Sept. 19.—Seventeen persons were killed and 30 others injured by a wreck on the electric tramway between Cagnes and Grasse. The train was composed of four cars. As the train was approaching a sharp descent leading to a viaduct over a ravine, Leotardi, who was the engineer, threw on the reverse lever as the train entered the viaduct. The sudden reversal of the lever broke the connection between the motor and the first car. This car slewed across the track and the other three cars crashed though the parapet down into the ravine.

WORM HAS TURNED, THANK GOODNESS

WHAT ORDER MEANS

Cox Demands Eight-Hour Day From State Employees.
Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—The order of Governor Cox demanding that 4,500 state employees report for work one hour earlier each day and work full eight hours daily, means a tremendous increase in the amount of work that can be done daily. One hour additional from each employee will give the state 4,500 hours of additional service. With an eight-hour day, the state will thus have 563 additional days' work each day. This is equal to putting on 563 additional employees without a cent of increased expense.

OHIO'S CASH BALANCE

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—Ohio now has $5,809,455.12 in the state treasury the state auditor said after his quarterly examination of the state treasury, $5,196,500 being in the banks.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Eagles Injured In Wreck.
Sandusky, O., Sept. 19.—Every man of 51 members of the Sandusky Aerie of Eagles, who went to Bellevue to help dedicate a new lodge room, was injured when the special car in which the party was returning home over the Lake Shore Electric line jumped the track at Castalia and turned over on its side. Three of the Eagles were seriously hurt. They are: Roland King, Carl Palmer and Emil Ruh.

Woman Bitten by Snake.

Crooksville, O., Sept. 19.—One hour after her mother Mrs. P. W. Deeter, had been bitten by a copperhead snake, Mrs. Leo F. Drake, 25, died of heart failure. Mrs. Deeter, who was bitten at her home in the country and was being brought to her daughter's, was told of the latter's death before she arrived at the house and collapsed. She will die, doctors say.

Brewers Must Withdraw.

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—Hotel companies in which breweries are stockholders can not get saloon licenses. Attorney General Hogan in a ruling to the state liquor license commissioners held that even a minority holding of stock by brewers constituted the "pecuniary interest" forbidden by law.

Trying to Settle Strike.

Steubenville, O., Sept. 19.—D. H. Sullivan, secretary of the state board of arbitration and former president of the Ohio miners, is here endeavoring to settle the strike at the Pope tin plate works, where the men want the union recognized. The management is running an open shop.

Struck Match to Locate Leak.

Dayton, O., Sept. 19.—Earl Stites, a visitor at the home of Louis Vincent of this city, in ignorance of the explosive qualities of gas, began lighting matches in his bedroom in search of a leak. An explosion followed and Stites was badly burned and cut.

FAST BUNCH OF BARN STORMERS COMING SUNDAY

The All-Professional "barn stormers" with an exceptionally strong line-up, will meet the Athletics on the local diamond Sunday afternoon, and some fast work is expected on both sides.

Cy Morgan, the man who was sold to the Cincinnati Reds by the Kansas City managers for $10,000, but whose crippled fin proved a drawback, will do the hurling for the visitors. Matthews, formerly of Greenfield, will be behind the home plate.

Hohnhorst, formerly with the Cleveland American league team, will hold down the first sack, while Jimmie Barton, of the St. Louis Federal leaguers team, will cover second, leaving "Wee Willie" Prout of the same team to look after third. Lefty Geyer will have left field.

Local citizens will remember the three last named individuals, who formerly played in the local team under Melvin.

Roy Golden will be with the visitors and take a hand in the work. Bachman, also a well known ex-league pitcher, will be with the "barn stormers".

Reno will be in the box for the Athletics, and Linton will be held in reserve.

The game will be called at 2:30 as usual, and one of the largest crowds of the season is predicted.

Interest in political circles throughout the country is keen over the impeachment trial of Governor William Sulzer of New York, scheduled to start at Albany, N. Y., on Sept. 18. Senator Robert F. Wagner, president pro tem, of the state senate, by reason of his office, presides at the trial, aided by Chief Justice E. M. Cullen of the State Court of Appeals. Assemblyman Aaron J. Levy is chairman of the board of managers which was selected to prosecute the charges against the governor, and State Senator James J. Frawley, who was chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee which heard the charges against Sulzer and recommended his impeachment, is an important witness.

WORK ON RESERVOIR IS WELL UNDER WAY

Work on the huge reservoir now under course of construction at the Washington water pumping station, is moving forward quite rapidly, and Contractors Bell & Blade have a gang of men at work on the cement walls of the big tank.

Most of the excavation work has been completed, and by the latter part of October it is expected that the new reservoir will be ready to receive the hundreds of thousands of gallons of water required to fill it. The concrete work is one of the biggest jobs of its kind ever let in the city.

One of the new wells of the company has been drilled in and a splendid flow of water found which will insure an increased reserve next season. Other wells will be drilled in immediately, but will probably not be placed in commission until next spring.

SMITH MURDER TRIAL IS IN FULL SWING

The trial of Dr. Arthur B. Smith for the alleged murder of his wife, Florence Caviler Smith, by administering poison to produce a slow death, is now under way in Springfield.

It is the second time the doctor has been placed on trial for the crime, the first jury disagreeing several months ago, and Smith has been held in the Clark county jail since that time.

Mrs. Smith had been dead several weeks before Dr. Smith was arrested. She had been dead only a short time until the man married another woman whom he is alleged to have called upon while his wife was living.

Thursday the experts called in to testify as to what was found, declared that death had been produced by poison.

No case in recent years has aroused the interest in Springfield and central Ohio as that of the man who has been accused of murdering his wife.

EGG TESTER SAYS EGGS WILL BE 60C

Septimus Mawer, known as the "bad egg" man of the State Dairy & Food department, predicts that unless the winter is unusually mild the retail price of eggs will be 5c each before the winter ends.

Mawer has been traveling over the state inspecting eggs with a view to catching the man who disposes of bad eggs, and claims to be in close touch with the egg market.

The hot, dry summer is blamed for a dearth of eggs the past few months, and an open season is the only hope of keeping the price down to anything like it has been.

MAY CUT LOW LIVING RATE.

Towanda (Pa.) Girl Will Try to Live on Less Than 50 Cents Weekly.
 Ithaca, N. Y.—The fifty cents a week rate for food set last spring by Miss Clara Loewus of Towanda, Pa., is in danger. The young woman who made it by living for twenty weeks on $10 is going out to break it this fall, according to word received in the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, in which she is a student.
 She has written that she not only will live at the rate she established last spring, but that she will try to cut under it by a few cents. Her experiments in dietetics will be watched by the home economics department in Cornell university.

BAGGAGEMASTER IS MAN OF THE HOUR

Saves B. & O. Passenger Train From Serious Wreck Near Madisonville
 When Section of Freight Runs Mile Down Grade and Is Ditched.

A B. & O. extra west-bound freight in charge of Conductor Groce and Engineers Funkhauser and Longdon, "doubled" at the Maderia grade near Madisonville one evening this week, and a disastrous wreck with heavy loss of life nearly resulted.

A section of the train had been left standing while the first section was pulled over the grade, and when the engines returned they found the second section rolling back down grade, and six cars and the caboose took the ditch when the foot of the hill was reached.

The fireman on No. 30, thinking the backing train would strike his train at Madisonville, reversed the engine and No. 30 started back westward with the backing freight in front and the oncoming east-bound passenger train No. 32 somewhere near and overdue.

The passenger train facing destruction from the freight train ahead and the commuter train No. 32 coming up from the rear, was only saved by the cool-headedness and quick action of Baggage-master Louis Reed, who is well known all along the line.

By the time the train had covered half a mile it was moving at the rate of 30 miles an hour, and the passengers, realizing that they were speeding down the track in imminent danger of being wrecked and with No. 32 overdue and coming from the direction in which they were bound, became panic-stricken.

For some reason the fireman and engineer had left the engine.

It was not until the freight crashed into the passenger train while both were going in the same direction, that Baggage-master Reed discovered that the engine throttle was wide open and the train was running wild. He quickly clambered over the coal-laden tender to the cab and brought the train to a stop near Oakley station.

The cut of freights took the ditch in a cut west of Madisonville, blocking the road for some time.

BECOMES FATHER AT 88.

Mountaineer's Son, Sixty-one, Finds a Young Brother When He Calls.
 Spartanburg, S. C.—O. P. Grant, who lives in the mountains north of here, has become a father at the age of eighty-eight.
 When his son, L. M. Grant, sixty-one years old, called at the family home he found his father sitting on the front porch coddling a tiny baby. Aged Mr.
 Grant proudly introduced the infant as his youngest son.

"For it's always fair weather"

THE words of the old Stein Song can well be applied to every home in which an Estate Stove is used.

Come what come may—snow, sleet, howling winds, zero temperature—there's always fair weather inside the house—warmth, and comfort, and cheerfulness.

The Estate Oak

is itself a prince of good fellows—a stove with a gentleman's instincts. Well-dressed, without being flashy; well-behaved; quiet, dignified, but a regular fiend for work (its work is heating the home.)

Come in and make the acquaintance of this famous stove; you'll like it on sight, and when you learn its good qualities, we feel sure that you, too, will want it for a lifelong companion.

Colebrook, N. H., Sept. 18.—When Harry Thaw was arrested in this once quiet little New Hampshire town the village "cooler" was filled.
 It contained three prisoners. That was fortunate for Thaw. In consequence he was taken to the rather pretentious summer hotel and housed in good shape. The town officials were also an obliging lot in other directions, for they gave the famous fugitive plenty of freedom, although, of course, under guard. He was allowed to visit the offices of his lawyers and to stroll through the main street in company with the sheriff, then kept in his room in the hotel,
 and the curious were warned away
 by special deputies.
